

We've Been Lending...

Farmington, CT (March, 2009) At InsurBanc, we understand the challenges that independent insurance agencies face, especially in today's economy. When agencies need financing for agency acquisition and perpetuation, they need to partner with an institution that understands their unique business model. To access that capital, they turn to InsurBanc.

InsurBanc represents the financial stability your agency needs. We are fully committed to the insurance industry. Our strength and unmatched expertise make us your most reliable source of capital. Here are some of our recent lending partners.
