

Matthew Sprang Joins InsurBanc as Senior Vice President, Director of Agency Banking

FARMINGTON, Conn., (November 10, 2021)—InsurBanc announced that Matthew Sprang has joined the company as Senior Vice President, Director of Agency Banking.

Matt was most recently President of Agency Banking at Westfield Bank of Ohio where he was responsible for that bank’s insurance agency lending and banking initiative. At InsurBanc, Matt will bring his extensive talents to expand the capability and reach of InsurBanc by focusing on the same insurance distribution niche which has also been a highly successful effort of InsurBanc.

“Matt is very well known to us and the industry and we are very pleased to have someone with his broad experience and knowledge of the insurance distribution space now on our team,” said Robert Pettinicchi, EVP and Chief Lending Officer. David Tralka, President and CEO added “Matt’s presence will serve as a catalyst for our continued expansion in insurance agency lending and deepens InsurBanc’s investment and commitment to being the premier financial services provider to help to keep the independent insurance distribution channel strong.”

Sprang received his MBA in Executive Management from Ashland University and a B.A. in Business Economics from the College of Wooster.

About InsurBanc

Headquartered in Farmington, Conn., InsurBanc, a division of Connecticut Community Bank, N.A., is a commercial bank specializing in financial products and services nationally for the independent insurance distribution community. Started in 2001 as a vision of the Big “I,” InsurBanc helps agencies by financing acquisitions and perpetuations and helps them to become more efficient by providing class-leading cash management solutions.

www.insurbanc.com